TOP 100 AT A GLANCE

of broadband technologies. For some, broadband represents only a small part of their business. In making these selections, we considered how important they are to advancing true broadband rather than how important broadband is to them.

MAKING A DIFFERENCE

As in previous years, the key tiebreaker question was this: Will this company make a difference in the fiber broadband industry in the coming year? To put it another way: Would the industry suffer if this company did not exist? Judge for yourself.

Let us know about organizations – large and small – that you think might make a difference a year from now. Your nominations have led us to a number of companies we might not otherwise have known about.
